

REGENERATE

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT FESTIVAL

MARCH 19, 2016 — CARTERSVILLE, GA

WELCOME TO REGENERATE!

Today is a celebration of two of the best things about our church—you and your passion for Jesus! As you witness the talent, dedication, and joy of the youth and young adults who take the stage today, I hope you will leave inspired, changed, and most importantly, more in love with Christ! "For in Him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:28).

For Christ and Young People,

PADDY MCCOY

Paddy is the chaplain of Walla Walla University and is an energetic speaker who appeals to both young and old alike.

Paddy has dedicated his life to sharing Jesus with collegiates and youth, both here in the U.S. and internationally. He is married to Tricia and is the proud father of Ayden and Ally. He enjoys mentoring leaders, living life to the full with Holy Spirit joy, and doing whatever it takes to lift up the One who was lifted up for us all.

IN CONCERT: CHRIS AUGUST & AMONG THE THIRSTY

Chris August is a soulful singer-songwriter who pours every ounce of his being into his music, without taking himself too seriously. But it's more than "just songs and melody," he says. "When it's impacting someone and inspiring them and encouraging them and the Lord's in it... at that point, it's much more than just music." Opening for Chris will be Among the Thirsty, an American Contemporary Christian music and worship band.

SPEAK OUT

KAREEM WILLIAMS

1:15 p.m.

Depression and Anger

Sometimes we think we're angry with people or because of situations in our lives, when in reality, we're angry with God. Maybe it's something from our past—something that happened to us—or maybe we're wondering why God isn't helping us. Millions of people in the world are angry with God, and some of them don't even know it. I was mad at God once, not realizing that I was dealing with pain from the inside. This underlining pain was manifested through depression. Learn how we can face anger and depression through the power of Jesus, if we allow Him to show us how.
