

HOW TO CONDUCT A REVERSING DIABETES SEMINAR A Conference-wide Training Event

COMING TO CHATTANOOGA ON MARCH 19!

WHO

This training is designed for nurses, doctors, and health professionals and will teach them how to conduct a diabetes seminar in their community.

PRESENTERS

Stephen (MPA, RN) and Karen Wickham (RN). The Wickhams continue to hold these very successful seminars in their community and beyond. They have received several awards for their work, most recently the 2015 Rural Health Association of Tennessee's Merit Award.

WHEN

Sunday, March 19, 2017, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Please arrive at 8:30 a.m.

LOCATION

Chattanooga First Seventh-day Adventist Church
7450 Standifer Gap Rd., Chattanooga, TN

REGISTRATION

Registration fee is $20 and includes lunch. The deadline to register is March 6, 2017. Online registration is available at www.registration.gccsda.com

CONTACT

For more information, call 800-567-1844, ext. 348

NOTE

Please note that this event is for adults only. Thank you for making other arrangements for your children.

Alternate Choice

The Southern Union Conference is sponsoring this same training event at their office in Norcross, Ga., on Sunday, May 21, 2017. For more information, contact Lynell LaMountain, Southern Union health ministries director, at (770) 408-1800 or llamountain@southernunion.com